

Lord, Help Me Walk in Contentment

"If you don't feel strong desires for the manifestation of the glory of God, it's not because you have drunk deeply and are satisfied. It is because you have nibbled so long at the table of the world. Your soul is stuffed with small things, and there is no room for the great." (John Piper)

When our desire/lust for things becomes too strong, it's because we are not content in who the Lord is and what he has given us. What are you lusting after? Approval? Recognition? Respect? Money? Control? Avoiding failure? All these things and many others take our attention away from the Lord. Therefore, we begin our walk back closer to the Lord by praying, "Lord, help me walk in contentment because You are enough for me."

Consider the following questions:

- What do you know about God's character that can help you to be content in any circumstance?
- What do bitterness, grumbling, and anxiety reveal about your relationship with God and your understanding of contentment?
