PASSAGE: Revelation 6:1-17

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Read Revelation 6:1-17. What is your first reaction to this passage? Does it create in you fear or confidence? Explain.
2. This passage is resting on the unshakeable foundation of Revelation 4 and 5. God is still in control. Jesus is still worthy. We are with the Lord. When you consider these truths, does that change your response to question number 1?
3. Read Revelation 6:1-8. What do you observe about the horses, the riders and what they are sent to do?
4. Read Revelation 6:9-11. What do you observe about the “souls who had been slain”? What would you do if you were confronted with the threat of death for sharing or standing up for the gospel?
5. Read Revelation 6:12-14, Isaiah 13:9-10, Joel 2:10-11. What are your observations from these passages?
6. Notice the fear that is in the people listed in Revelation 6:15-17. Would you have this same fearful reaction?
7. Read Psalm 46. The world is also coming undone in this psalm. What do you learn about fear, refuge and who is it that is with us? Does that create in you fear or confidence?
